9th ANNUAL AWARDS BREAKFAST

SUNDAY, OCTOBER 20, 1985

O'CAMPINOS RESTAURANT 70 Javez Street Newark, N.J. 07105

Message from ANGELO CORTINAS

The theme of our breakfast is "Changing times."

The time in which we live sets the stage of the future. Therefore, the seeds planted today are the plants of tomorrow. The house you build for your family today must be right for tomorrow. Your children and grandchildren will live in it.

To have a strong government we must plant our seeds of change today, and as they bloom, care for them, so that our governments will be strong and hold up all our plans for the future.

That's why we have entitled our breakfast theme, "Changing Times." Its time for a change, new ideas to be planted for the seeds of yesteryears have withered and are soon to die. So I ask you today to help me and join with me to change these times.
